

Please DO NOT let LPFM stations take priority over current FM translator services, such as K-LOVE. I listen to K-LOVE regularly for its music and programming. It has benefitted and inspired me, as well as many of my fellow Christians. It would be devastating to lose it. We need K-LOVE as alternative voice to secular programming.